Linking of divisional Charts

Inter relation of the divisional charts is a very interesting area and gives fascinating results. It is rewarding and the information one can derive is endless.

We can divide this linking of charts in two groups.

1. Charts of one individual.
2. Charts of different individuals.

One Individual

Different divisional charts of a person indicate a specific areas of the life. For example DIO stands for the profession or the actions (Karma) a person does. How the profession is linked to his happiness, then the D16 chart is to be seen. To check his karmas with his spiritual pursuits, we link it with D20. We can group these relations in many aspects of life.

To give an idea how this exercise can be conducted, we tabulate the linking of DIO with other charts of one individual. We note that the tenth house of DIO is the karma house and the Lagna is the body of Karmas. The planets influencing the 10th house/lord are taken in DIO as indicator of Karma.

These indicators are —

1. Planet in tenth house.
2. Lord of tenth house
3. Planets aspecting tenth house/lord.

Next is to examine these planets in the other charts and their relation with the significator house or Lagna of the other divisional chart to draw the conclusion.

The significator planet of dashamsha should be -

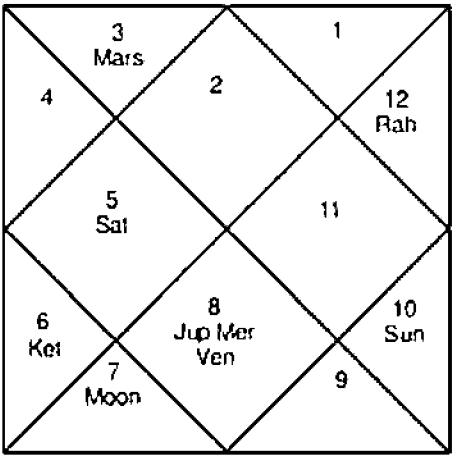

a. Related the significator house/Lagna of the other divisional chart to promote the divisional chart by actions.
b. When placed in kendra, trikona, third or eleventh house acts favourably for the divisional chart.
c. When placed in sixth, eighth or twelfth house gives unfavourable results of the divisional chart by own action.

We consider the following dashamsha chart and link this to other varga charts to understand the relation. Example DOB 12 Oct 1931; TOB 07:55:22 Hrs. POB Machilipatnam

Dashamsha (DIO)

Tenth house is Aquarius and aspected by its lord Saturn. No other planet is aspecting or placed in tenth house. Thus Saturn is the significator planet of Karmas.

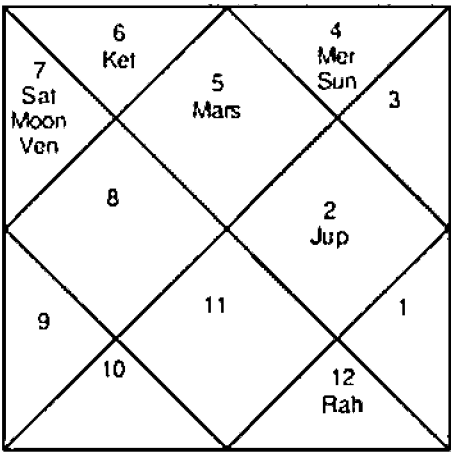

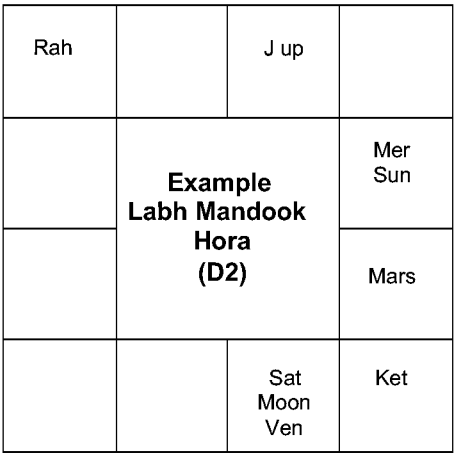

Hora

The Labh Mandook hora is considered since it shows the material aspects of life.

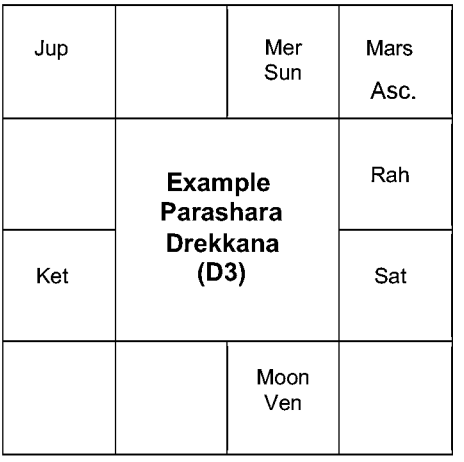

Saturn is exalted in third house and is with third lord. The material earning is by hard work and at a place away from the birth town.

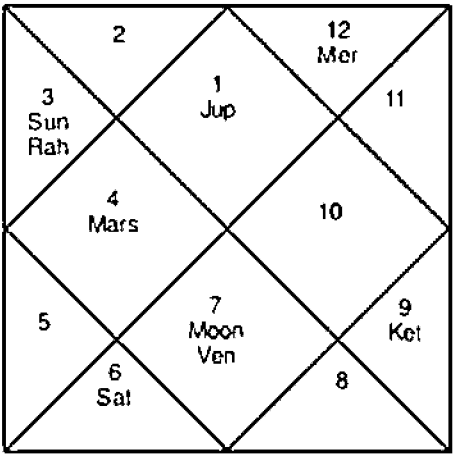

Drekkana

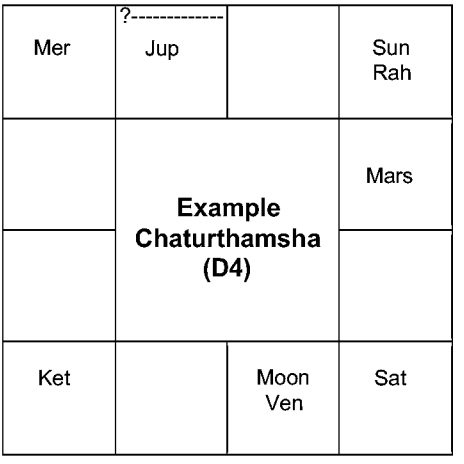

The linking of actions or karmas towards cobom is seen. Saturn is in third house and is the house of younger ones. The karmas of the person are favourable to the younger ones and force them to show courage and drive in their life. He is helpful to younger coboms. Saturn is in enemy sign which also indicate problems to immediate younger cobom. Eleventh hosue is the elder cobom. Saturn is in fifth from eleventh house. He is like a child to his elder cobom.

Chaturthamsha

Saturn is placed in sixth house and is not a good position. The actions do not favour possession of property or the inclination to own properties is not present.

Saptamsha

Saturn is afflicted by Ketu in third house. Saturn aspects fifth house and is in eleventh from fifth house. Action towards children is favourable. The intelligence is excellent and is achieved by Karmas.

In a similar fashion we can interlink other divisional charts of an individual. We can take saptamsha i.e. the siblings and link it to dwadashamsha for relations of your children with your parents. Compare it with navamsha to check the relation of children with your spouse etc.

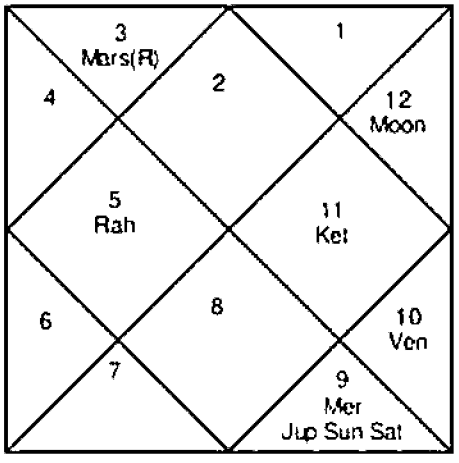

We can link any divisional chart with others and the number of such comparisons is very large.

Charts of members ofa family

The related divisional charts of members of a family are linked to understand their mutual relation in different aspects of their lives and how they influence each other.

For example we take the horoscope of a member of a family say the father. We wish to examine the relation of his children with other members in the family. The saptamsha chart of father indicate the children and the Lagna of saptamsha is the general significator of children.

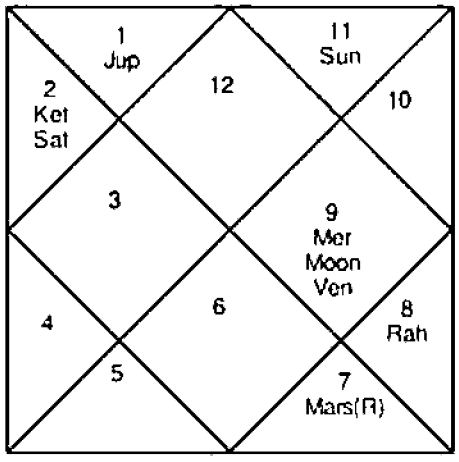

We check the relation of children with other members of the family of father. To check the relation of his son with the brothers and sisters of father we will take drekkana chart of father.

We can analyse the relation of mother with children in a similar way. For mother we take fourth house in dwadashamsha in place of ninth house.

Charts of different individuals

a. Husband and wife

The navamsha charts of the husband and wife are mutually examined to check the relationship between them. The seventh lord of the navamsha chart holds the key for this analysis.

Example 1

The seventh lord of navamsha of husband is Venus. This Venus is checked in navamsha of wife. Venus is exalted in sixth house and aspected by sixth lord from twelfth house. This husband is not happy with the gid. Venus is aspected by Jupiter from twelfth house. Husband enjoys an exalted status from wife.

Seventh lord of navamsha of wife is Mars. Mars is seen in the navamsha of husband. M ars is exalted in navamsha of husband and is in third house i.e. ninth from seventh. Mars is not aspected by any planet. The girl loves the boy. Wife also enjoy exalted status from husband.

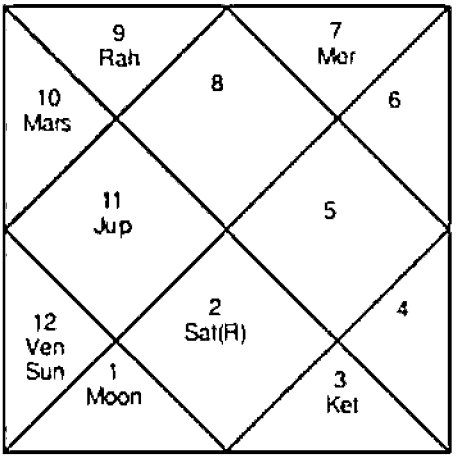

Ihe boy has filed for divorce which the gid could not even believe.

The seventh lord of navamsha of wife is Jupiter. Jupiter is placed in the fourth house of navamsha of husband. Again a good position and wife is the giver of happiness to husband.

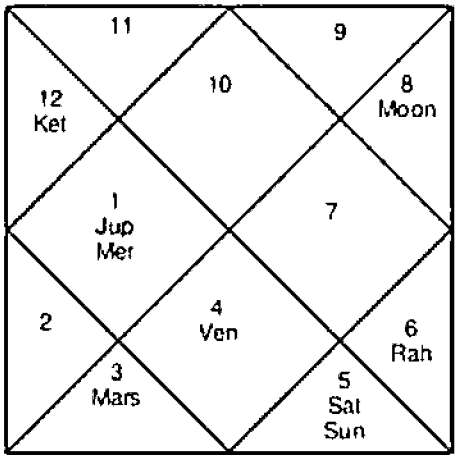

b. Division of property in a family

Property is one of the major factor causing bloody battles in the family. Ihe parents are confused as to how to divide their assets among their children. Children are also greedy and worried. They want to grab all assets of their parents during their life time. Children are afraid that the parents may g ive the property to some one else or donate it. Bad behaviour of children grows from this frustration and the parents on other hand want to be looked after well. All is the result of loss of social values and the loss of good sanskara.

We take up a case of a mother having two sons and a daughter. She owns good property. Younger son created problems in settlement and case was decided in court of law.

Fourth lord of chaturthamsha chart of mother is Saturn. We relate this Saturn in the chaturthamsha of children.

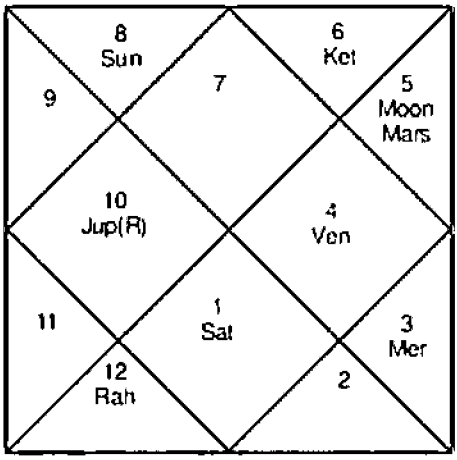

The eldest son has Saturn in the Lagna of chaturthamsha chart. Saturn is debilitated and is retrograde which signify the sacrifice. He stood with his mother in the dispute. M other is living with eldest son. He got the biggest share in the property.

c. Business relations

This interlinking can be done to examine the common interests of two persons whether related or not. Mostly the mutual relation is for business partnership or friendship for happiness.

For business relation we can relate the dashamsha chart of both and see the relation of tenth house/lord of one chart in another chart. This linking can be very useful tool for an employer to asses the horoscope of an employee for his useful work.

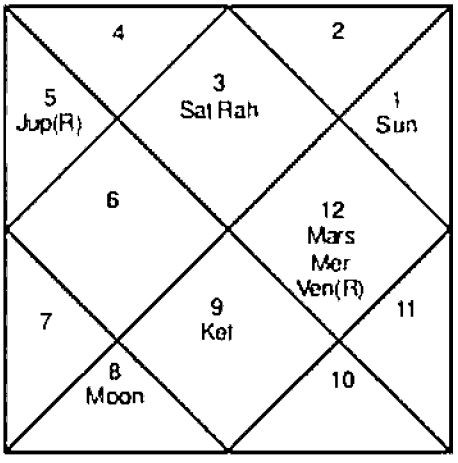

We can relate the two persons for happiness or cordial relations by comparing the shodashamsha charts. The Lagna and the fourth houses are related to assess the mutual happiness.

Example - Employer - Employee

We give example of employer and employee to understand the mutual trust in the business relations. This chart is of a employee who was with this employer for more than 18 years till the business was shut down.

Tenth lord of employers DIO chart is M ercury. Take this M ercury to the employee DIO. Mercury is debilitated in second house and placed with Lagna lord Saturn. Mars is tenth lord and aspects Mercury. The employee is dedicated being connected to Lagna Lord and tenth lord. The employee had a humble start with this employer.

Now to see how the employee was treated by employer. The

d. Guru/Disciple

Another linking can be of vimshamsha charts for spiritual support. The charts of MasterfGuru) and the disciple can be a good example.

Example

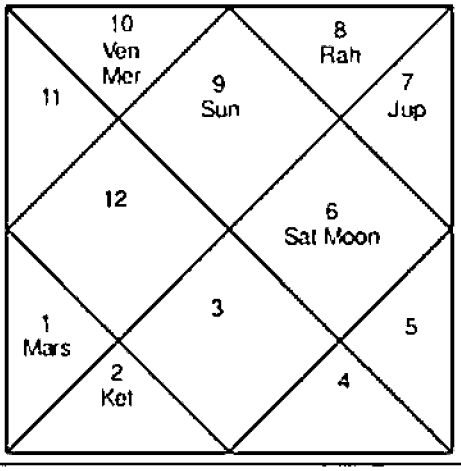

The Lagna of both vimshamsha chart are of the same trine.

Fifth lord of Guru is same as the ninth lord of disciple. Ihe ninth lord of Guru is Saturn. Saturn and Mercury are well related in both

He is a published author of four books on Astrology prior to this presentation.

About the Book

Three distingushing features of Hindu Astrology are divisional charts, dasha systems and yogas. This book deals with divisional charts.

We all know the concept of divisional charts after we go through the Brihat Parashar Hora Shastra. It is for the first time that the practical application of these are given. The book deals with all Parashari and non Parashari divisional charts and bring out their predictive value and the technique. The high lights of the book are:

1. Rules for examination of each divisional chart.
2. House significations of divisional charts.
3. Linking ofdivisional charts.

Linking of divisional charts is discussed for the first time. It opens new avenues in sharpning the predictive technique and provide ground work for further research. It shows the way to do and develope Astrology in a scientific and replicable manner.

The book is illustrated with many examples to bring out the deeper meanings of divisional charts.

I hope that this book will be helpful to all students and scholars of Astrology in sharping their predictive accuracy.
